

Republic of Noodles comes to Delhi

Lemon Tree Hotels has announced the opening of its pan-Asian restaurant, Republic of Noodles, at the newly launched Lemon Tree Premier, Delhi Airport. The restaurant, which has 92 covers, will offer the same cuisine that has won it acclaim nationwide. First launched in Goa in 2009 at The Lemon Tree, Amarante Beach Resort, Republic of Noodles (RON) has built a reputation as one of the most authentic pan-Asian culinary experiences on offer in India. Today, there are eight RON outlets located across the Lemon Tree properties at Goa, Jaipur, Bengaluru, Hyderabad, Aurangabad and now in Delhi.

Speaking on the occasion of the launch, Rajeev Janveja, Corporate Chef, Lemon Tree Hotels said, "We are delighted at the opening of our award-winning restaurant in Delhi. The restaurant offers an eclectic menu and is designed to appeal to people who enjoy the entire experience of the pan-Asian cuisine. Republic of Noodles brings a completely new level of the pan-Asian dining experience to Delhi and we look forward to welcoming food enthusiasts on this exotic journey across South East Asia."

