Lemon Tree plans 15 more outfits

New Delhi, June 4

Hospitality chain Lemon Tree Hotel Company is planning to add up to 15 hotels with over 1,200 rooms by the end of next fiscal. The company, which has 40 hotels with 4,300 rooms in 24 cities across the country, is looking at Siliguri, Mumbai, Patna, Amritsar, Gangtok, Jammu, Lucknow, Kolkata and Coimbatore for its new properties. When asked about the investment for the expansion, without divulging details, Vikramjit Singh, President, Lemon Tree, said these hotels would be a mix of company-owned and managed properties. PTI
